

Attention all NAFC Schools Alumni and Supporters:

Welcome to the 2nd annual Legacy NAFC Alumni Royal Court! The New Albany Floyd County Education Foundation is thrilled to present our prestigious selection of graduates from NAHS and FCHS who have come together for a noble cause--raising funds for NAFC teachers and students. The top fundraiser will be crowned at the NA vs. FC boys basketball game on Friday, December 8th at Floyd Central High School.

When you choose to support a Royal Court candidate, you become an esteemed Legacy NAFC member!

Legacy NAFC is the official alumni support group of the NAFC Education Foundation and New Albany Floyd County Schools. Our mission is to ensure the resounding success of all NAFC students and educators. Your contribution will play a crucial role in:

- Empowering Programs and Services: Your contributions will support essential programs and services for NAFC students and teachers, including classroom grants, Blessings in a Backpack, Imagination Library, and many more.
- Closing the "Opportunity Gap": Our unwavering commitment to ensure that every NAFC student has access to a broad set of life-enhancing educational opportunities and experiences.
- Fostering Community Spirit: By contributing to this campaign, you are actively contributing to a more vibrant and united community. Your support strengthens this bond to enable us to work together towards greater achievements.

Contributions are tax deductible (EIN: 20-2552199) and all usage is approved by the NAFC Education Foundation Board of Directors

For questions, please contact Sherri McKeen, Alumni Coordinator of the NAFC Education Foundation at 812-542-2242 or SMcKeen@NAFCS.org

MEET THE ROYAL COURT!

FC '70

Vicki (Snow) Hays-Pierce

worked in the costume shop at FCHS for over 30 years. She began volunteering with the NAFC schools when her own children entered elementary school. Vicki is the proud parent of three FCHS alumni and recently married a fellow FCHS graduate.

NA '75

Laura (Morris) McGuirk

was a counselor at New Albany High School for 22 years. Many of her former students credit her for inspiring them to pursue higher education. Both of her children graduated from NAHS.

FC '80

Pam (Plunkett) Snow

is a Global Strategic Account Representative at Iron Mountain Inc. Pam has devoted many years to serving with her church community. Her father was a teacher within NAFCS, and her husband, Glen Snow, was a teacher and the first Athletic Trainer at FCHS.

NA '84

Al Knable

is a dermatologist, serves on the Floyd County Board of Commissioners, and has a political consulting company. He is actively involved with the Salvation Army and Hosparus. Jessica, his wife, and their two children graduated from NAHS.

NA '90

Nicole Yates

is the Associate VP of Growth and Community Engagement for Passport Health Plan by Molina Healthcare. She has consulted on local, state, and national campaigns and is on Fund for the Arts, Metro United Way, Dare to Care, and Falls of the Ohio boards.

FC '95

Gary Banet

is a law partner at Church, Langdon, Lopp & Banet. He served with the Floyd County Little League and currently coaches the HHMS girls' tennis team with his daughter. Gary and his wife, Angie, have two children attending NAFC schools.

NA '05

Matthew Wiegman

founded Senior Source with two of his friends. He generously provides scholarships to deserving New Albany High School seniors annually. Matthew and his wife, Jessica, are expecting a daughter in January.

FC '97

Laura Gilmore

works with Gilmore Construction. Laura is inspired by her parents' contributions to the Education Foundation and this has led her to continue to give back to this community. Laura and her husband, John Groan, have two children.
