Welcome Back, Teachers and Students!

The beginning of a school year is always a busy time with exciting learning opportunities on the horizon. Over 12,000 students and teachers will once again fill the classrooms and halls of our outstanding Floyd County schools. As this school year opens, the Education Foundation would like to thank our teachers, families, community partners, administrators, and investors for helping us to strengthen our schools and our community. Have a wonderful year!

Helping YOU Make Good Schools GREAT!

The New Albany Floyd County Education Foundation is launching a new and exciting fundraising effort called "Pigs 4 NAFC Kids". Approximately 30 piggy banks will be designed and painted by local artists of all ages and distributed throughout Floyd County in hopes of raising funds and awareness for NAFC Schools through the Education Foundation.

The piggy banks will be displayed in local businesses all over Floyd County during the months of November and December. All proceeds will help to fund important education initiatives through the NAFC Education Foundation. At the end of the drive, the pigs will be on display together at a location TBA and then auctioned off at the Education Foundation's annual dinner/auction, the Education Celebration! on March 8th, 2013. Participating vendors will receive special recognition on the Education Foundation and NAFC's website, Facebook page, print materials, and at the Education Celebration! If you or your family is interested in painting a piggy bank to be displayed, or you are a local business interested in sponsoring a piggy bank, please contact Tyler Bliss, Executive Director at 812-542-2228 or TBliss@NAFCedFoundation.org or click on the links below.

Pigs 4 Kids is sponsored by Earth and Fire Pottery at 4212 Charlestown Rd. in New Albany. All participating artists will have access to Earth and Fire's studio space and paint materials to complete their piggy banks. Artists may also use their own supplies/kiln if they wish.

SMART Boards Installed at New Albany High School

This time last year, New Albany High School only had 10 operating SMART Boards that were purchased through a generous grant from the Horseshoe Foundation of Floyd County and funds from the Education Foundation. This year, through a combination of school funding and funds raised at the 2012 Education Celebration!, the Education Foundation's annual dinner/auction, EVERY OPERATING CLASSROOM HAS A SMART BOARD AND PROJECTOR INSTALLED!
