$5,000 Awarded to Highland Hills Middle School from Carl and Mary Kay Wolford Great School Project!

Mary Kay Wolford and her husband, Carl give a check to teachers at Highland Hills Middle School who applied for a grant to build an audio library for students. The NAFC Education Foundation awarded the $5,000 to purchase an iPad and some iPods loaded with audio versions of their books, as well as hard copies students can read along with. Pictured from left to right, are Tyler Bliss, Director of the Education Foundation, Chuck Freiburger, Melissa Lopp, Amellia Dusch, Carl Wolford, Mary Kay Wolford, Carla Thomas, Liz Murphy, Barb Vorgang, and Steve Griffin, principal.

The Education Foundation would like to thank Carl and Mary Kay Wolford for their bold support of important education initiatives in New Albany Floyd County. Their vision for success had made this funding opportunity possible.

Join us as we showcase and celebrate the many exciting happenings with our great New Albany Floyd County Schools!
